

PICCINI, TRADITION SINCE 1882

To be part of the land you live on. To be one with the spirit of the place you live in. To live the Tuscan way. To work amongst vineyards, to craft wine year after year from those vineyards, and to declare it your name—this is the Piccini family. Four generations carry on this tradition and passion using modern techniques to create a modern face to the Chianti wines of the world. PICCINI, TRADITION SINCE 1882.
