October - December 2006
Volume 16, No. 4

The 2002 Cabernet Sauvignon, [Oak Mountain Ranch Estate vineyard] Alexander Valley, $40, has ripe aromas of chocolate, blackberry, licorice, sweet cherry, and vanilla before round, softly textured flavors of the same with a sweet note and laced with lots of fine tannin. The broad, long finish adds spice. Well balanced, structured, and integrated. Very Tasty.

This is the first release from Ridgeline which is owned by Cordiniu and we look forward to future releases. The vineyard was planted in the late 1990s so it is still young which makes this wine even more impressive. It was made by Dave Dobson who also makes wine for Artesa.
